

Programme (Online format: 14.-15. March 2023)
Sustainable HRM Spring Workshop 2023

“Striving for Impact: Sustainable HRM for the Common-Good”

Tuesday March 14th (Morning)

Please note, all times CET.

09:30-09:45	Conference Welcome. Ina Aust & Michael Müller-Camen.
09:45-10:30	Opening Plenary. Ina Aust, Julia Brandl, Michael Brookes, Fang Lee Cooke, Michael Müller-Camen, Marco Guerci, Shuang Ren, Doug Renwick, Judith Semeijn, Geoffrey Wood, Philip Yang.
10:30-10:45	Coffee Break
10:45-11:30	Session 1: Sustainable HRM theories Providing VET for temporary workers: A pragmatist view of Common-Good. Laverne Iminza Chore, Julia Brandl, Mario Junker. Commons-Organizing for the Common-Good. Brian Matthews. A Typological Exploration of Sustainable HRM. Jiarui Yin, Siyu Zhou. Chairs: Ina Aust; Fang Lee Cooke
11:30-12:00	Q&A: Discussion / Breakouts
12:00-13:00	Meal Break

Tuesday March 14th (Afternoon)

13:00-13:45	Session 2: Sustainable HRM and Digitalization Leveraging Digital Sustainable Human Resource Management Practices for Achieving Sustainable Development. Goals: Insights from Signaling Theory. Aizhan Tursunbayeva, Živilė Stankevičiūtė, Luigi Moschera. HRM sustainability and digital sustainability: The junction and discrepancy. Hongxia Peng. Time, trust and control in mobile working. The backlash for women with childcare. Anett Hermann, Maria Therese Claes. Chairs: Michael Brookes; Philip Yang
13:45 - 14.15	Q&A: Discussion / Breakouts
14:15 - 14.30	Coffee Break
14:30 - 15:15	Session 3: Employment Relationships and Sustainable HRM Contributing to Social Sustainability through employment relationships. Mar Bornay-Barrachina, Rosalía Díaz-Carrión, Macarena López-Fernández, Pedro M. Romero-Fernández. On democratised workplaces and meaningful work: The impact of employee satisfaction on labour investment efficiency. Sami Adwan, Tobias Polzer, Galina Goncharenko, Siwen Liu. How does a leadership development community evolve, and how do the members become change agents for their workplaces? Ji-Yeon Seok. Chairs: Judith Semeijn; Geoffrey Wood
15:15 - 15:45	Q&A: Discussion / Breakouts
15:45 - 16:30	Social event “Wonder Me”

Wednesday March 15th (Morning)

09:00 - 09:30	Welcome Day 2 Michael Müller-Camen & Ina Aust Session 4, Part 1: National Context and Sustainable HRM How common are common good approaches to HRM? Nataliya Podgorodnichenko, Fiona Edgar, Adeel Akmal. Introducing HR practices for sustainability: Evidence from China. Yuan Liang. Chair: Shuang Ren
09:30 - 10:00	Q&A: Discussion / Breakouts
10:00 - 10:15	Coffee Break
10:15 - 11:00	   Session 4, Part 2: Round Table Discussion: Sustainable HRM in different national contexts How social sustainability and ecological sustainability translates into people management in Turkey? A qualitative analysis of sustainability reports. Çiğdem Vatansever. Sustainable HRM in Switzerland– A new role for HRM or more PR instead of HR? Feriha Özdemir, Michelle Zumsteg, Martina Zölch, Dominik Büttler. Protecting Employees through Adaptive Laws in Times of Economic Crisis: A View from Australia Casey Watters. Chair: Michael Müller-Camen

11:00 - 11:30	Session 5: Teaching Sustainable HRM Common-Good HRM in Business School Curricula: Can we Teach HRM for Common Good? Chen, X., Gaikwad, R.L., Lemanski, M.K. Striving for Impact: promoting Sustainable HRM in Dutch HRM bachelor education. Petra Broijl, Ineke van Kruining. Chair: Julia Brandl
11:30 - 12:00	Q&A: Discussion / Breakouts
12:00 - 13:00	Meal Break

Wednesday March 15th (Afternoon)

13:00 - 13:45	Session 6: Green OB Different shades of green? How employees' perceptions and authenticity beliefs of green HRM affect their pro-environmental behavior and affective organizational commitment. Thomas Van Waeyenberg, Judith Semeijn. Employees' Motivation to Participate in Organizations' Pro-Environmental Initiatives: Human Resource Management Implications. Stuart Allen.
---------------	--

	Going Beyond the Work Setting: The Implications of Green Human Resource Management Practices for Employee Green Behaviors at Home. Jian Peng, Kui Yin. Chairs: Marco Guerci; Doug Renwick
13:45 -14:15	Q&A: Discussion / Breakouts
14:15-14:30	Coffee Break
14:30-15:15	Closing Plenary on “A Common Agenda for Sustainable, Common-Good impact?” Ina Aust, Julia Brandl, Michael Brookes, Fang Lee Cooke, Michael Müller-Camen, Marco Guerci, Shuang Ren, Doug Renwick, Judith Semeijn, Geoffrey Wood, Philip Yang.
15:15 - 15:45	World-Café Round-Tables
15:45 - 16:00	Open Mic & Farewell